- Join Us -

Purpose

The Food Laboratory Alliance serves to:

- ❖ Promote food safety and quality of food laboratory testing;
- ❖ Impact regulatory, government and public affairs issues that affect food laboratories; and
- ❖ Provide information, education and guidance on regulatory and legislative issues pertaining to food laboratories.

Membership

The Food Laboratory Alliance represents a coalition of organizations devoted to the safety of the nation's food supply and the quality of food laboratory testing. Organizations may include food laboratories, providers of food testing products and services, food facilities, and representatives of consumers and food laboratory professionals.

The number of organizations in the Alliance is limited to allow for prompt decision-making and individual attention. Organizations are represented by their senior executives.

The Food Laboratory Alliance aims to achieve consensus among its members in furthering the pursuit of a safe food supply and quality food laboratory testing. Positions taken represent these underlying principles.
